

DISTANCE LEARNING ONLY

Google Classroom will serve as each student's Digital Homeroom and Communication Center. All teachers will use Google Classroom, Google Meet and each student's sutterhigh.org e-mail to interact with students. Students will access their Edgenuity and ICEV Curriculum through their Google Classroom. Teachers will provide live daily instruction each period, following the schedule listed below. Teachers will introduce the daily lesson, lecture and interact with students. Students are strongly encouraged to follow the established instructional schedule. When students cannot follow the schedule, they will be required to log-on daily to complete each assignment. Daily attendance will be determined by a combination of the following factors: attending each class period daily and an evaluation of assignments completed on a daily basis.
